Identifying a Document by it's Number

Forms contain an "FM" in the number, for example: 1000-FM-OA0048. There are a few instances where a document may have a "PM" in the number and still be filed under Forms. Forms can be found under Forms on the eLibrary.

Permits contain a "PM" in the number, for example: 2700-PM-AQ0201. There are a few instances where a document may have an "FM" in the number and still be filed under Permits. Permits can be found under Permit and Authorization Packages on the eLibrary.

Publications contain a "BK" (book) in the number, for example: 5400-BK-DEP2365. They may also contain a "UK" (unknown), a "RE" (report), a "PA" (pamphlet), an "MN" (manual), or a "BO" (brochure). Publications can be found under Publications on the eLibrary.

Fact Sheets are publications that contain a "FS" in the number, for example: 2700-FS-DEP2108. Fact Sheets can be found under Publications on the eLibrary.

Technical Guidance documents contain 10 numbers, for example: 400-0200-001. These documents can be found under Technical Guidance Draft Documents or Technical Guidance Final Documents.

If looking for a form with the letters WSWM try using WSFR. Recently the Bureau of Water Supply and Wastewater Management (WSWM) changed their name to Bureau of Water Standards and Facility Regulation (WSFR). With that name change came a change to their letter designation at the top left of the page. When searching for a form in Water Standards and Facility Regulation, instead of 3800-FM-WSWM0000, search for 3800-FM-WSFR0000.

If looking for a form with the letters LRWM, try using BWM. Recently the Bureau of Land Recycling and Waste Management (LRWM) changed their name to the Bureau of Waste Management (BWM). With that name change came a change to their letter designation at the top left of the page. When searching for a form in Waste Management, instead of searching for 2500-FM-LRWM0000, search for 2500-FM-BWM0000.
