Multiple Basemap, Feature, & Imagery Sources Required for Georeferencing

LIDAR is Necessary for Identification of Mine Entrances for Georeferencing Control Points.

P.R.R. Used as Verification Feature

Historical Maps Used to Confirm Existence & Location of P.R.R.

Less Precise Control Points (such as this bend in the road) Necessary for Proper Orientation and Stretching as Others are Highly Collinear

Control Points
Georeference Connections
Verification Features